Oldrich Tuma is Director of the Institute for Contemporary History of the Academy of Sciences of the Czech Republic, Prague. His main area of research was earlier Byzantine studies. Since the early 1990’s his research has focused on modern history of Czechoslovakia and Central Europe, particularly in the years 1968-1989.