CENFAD and the Center for Vietnamese Philosophy, Culture, and Society, will host a workshop on the Vietnam War in the Mekong Delta. It will highlight the experiences, perspectives, and memories of Nguyễn Thị Vân. The widow of the Communist Party of Vietnam’s war-time First Secretary, Lê Duẩn, she was a long-serving cadre in South Vietnam. She recently co-authored a three-volume study, The Resistance War in the Western Mekong Delta (1945-1975). Her co-authors, Lê Thị Mai and Cao Tuấn Phong, along with project advisor Ngô Vĩnh Long, will join her. After a lunch hosted by Temple, distinguished scholars of Vietnam and American foreign relations will lead two thematic discussion sessions: one on War, Politics and Leadership, and the second on War and Society. Guests who would like to stay for lunch should rsvp to Matthew Shannon at mshannon@temple.edu.

Date: Thursday, November 11
9:30am - 4:30pm
Gladfelter Hall, 9th Floor, Russell Weigley Room

Contact rimmerma@temple.edu for further details