The D.C. Internship Experience

The Internship
Each week, you’ll work Monday through Thursday at an internship site that is tailored to your interests, skills and professional goals.

Gateway to Washington, D.C.
Spend a semester or summer getting to know the nation’s capital. Here are just a few examples of the places you could go and the people you could meet through a TWC program.

The Evening Course
One night each week (between Monday and Thursday), you’ll take an evening course. These courses range across an array of disciplines, and you’ll choose the option that’s best for you.

The LEAD Colloquium
On Fridays, you’ll participate in small groups and professional tracks, along with periodic large-group activities like a speaker series, civic engagement and more.

Networking and Social Activities
Take advantage of the countless opportunities D.C. has to offer after work hours and on weekends.

TWC Support Network
Many people are on hand to guide, support and educate you throughout your experience.

Campus Liaison
Educates you about academic credit and financial arrangements and serves as a link to TWC on your campus.

Internship Advisor
Communicates with you before arrival, helps identify internship options and refers your materials to potential sites.

LEAD Instructor
Helps you establish goals, organizes special programming and provides feedback on assignments.

Student Services Staff
Provides career advice, organizes cultural and networking events and assists students with disabilities.

Alumni in Residence
Support you in TWC housing facilities and arrange social activities.

TWC Alumni Community
Connects with you through networking events or social media and may provide future job leads and professional mentorship.

Fellow Interns
Share the TWC experience with you, help you explore all D.C. has to offer and may become lifelong friends.
